TOM AND ANN AUSTIN #010109

The Austins have been with MTW since 1983, training leaders for the church in Africa. From 1987 to 1995 Tom was on loan to the Nairobi International School of Theology in Kenya, where he was on the faculty and was heavily involved in the school administration.

In late 1995 MTW asked Tom to help develop a new, multi-faceted model of theological education for Africa. In addition from mid 1999 to the end of 2004, Tom served as the principal of the Bible Institute of South Africa, an MTW partner institution located near Cape Town, South Africa. Presently he is concentrating on facilitating and guiding MTW ministries in theological education in sub-Saharan Africa.

While in Kenya, Ann taught Bible courses to the wives of the seminary students at the Nairobi International School of Theology. Since their move to South Africa she has been involved in a variety of ministries. She led the faculty wives in developing a ministry to the women at the Bible Institute of South Africa. Ann also leads a Bible study at their local church and a speaking ministry to women's groups in the area.
