DAVID AND GWEN BROOKS #10526

David and Gwen have served with Mission to the World and Wycliffe Bible Translators since 1976. David completed his undergraduate work at the University of Tennessee and received an M.A. from Columbia International University in 1981, where Gwen also attended. The Brooks have four grown children.

During their years of ministry, the Brooks have served in a variety of leadership roles in Ecuador, Indonesia, and the Americas Area, developing and overseeing Bible translation strategies. For the last four years, Dave was the Americas Area director for Wycliffe Bible Translators International, responsible for the development of recruitment efforts in Latin America. Dave is now serving as director of partnerships for WBTI. He will be seeking to promote partnerships between WBTI and other missions and denominations for the purpose of seeing the Bible translation movement become a true worldwide movement. An essential aspect of that will involve mentoring leaders around the world, with a focus on resourcing and completing the Bible translation task. Dave and Gwen were asked to make Singapore their home to help establish the new international office of operations and, through Dave's specific focus, to link Wycliffe International to the wider world. Gwen provides administrative support for Dave.
