JENNI DE JONG #11830 EVANGELISM/DISCIPLESHIP

God awakened a love for evangelism and a heart for the global Church in Jenni's life during a summer mission trip to Uganda in 2005. There Jenni discovered a passion for digging into the questions and struggles that keep people from embracing Jesus as the only refuge from their sin and brokenness.

After graduating from Covenant College with a degree in philosophy, Jenni worked for two years as a marketing writer before investigating whether God might use her to minister in Europe. She spent two months in L'viv, Ukraine, teaching English and developing relationships with university students alongside the team there. God used that experience to lead Jenni to join the team in L'viv for three years to teach English, mentor university girls, lead Bible studies, and assist with team communications, all with the overarching goal of planting a vibrant Ukrainian Reformed church in L'viv that will in turn plant churches throughout the Western region of Ukraine.

Please pray for compassion and clarity for Jenni as she speaks into the lives of young women in L'viv. Ask God to fill and overflow her with the grace of Christ, so that she may pour it out in every conversation and interaction.
