ALAN AND CHINGLIEN FIOI #12301

Alan grew up in India, where his parents still serve as missionaries with Mission to the World. From 1991 to 1993, Alan taught at Christ's College in Taiwan with MTW. With a desire to reach Asians for Christ, he obtained training at Covenant Theological Seminary and Columbia International University (CIU). Alan then returned to Christ's College in 1999 with his wife Chinglien and daughter Tevah.

Chinglien grew up in an idol-worshipping home in Taiwan. After coming to know the Lord, God gave her a zeal to bring the gospel to her people. With a background in journalism and sociology, she pursued seminary training at CIU where she and Alan met.

The Fiois serve at Christ's College, a four-year Christian liberal arts college which is overseen by MTW. Their on-campus ministries include teaching English and Bible content courses and evangelizing and discipling students one-on-one and in group settings. They also use music to aid in campus and church worship as well as evangelism.

They have two daughters, Tevah and Rinah.
