KEN AND TAMMIE MATLACK #14723

Ken and Tammie Matlack have led Mission to the World's team in the eastern area of Berlin since 1993, with a goal of seeing a church-planting multiplication movement started there. The team concentrates on training German believers in various facets and ministries of church planting.

The son of missionary parents, Ken was born and raised in Bavaria, Germany. Following his graduation from Clearwater Christian College in Florida, he earned master of divinity and master of Christian education degrees at Reformed Theological Seminary in Jackson, Miss. He was involved in church planting in Florida for seven years before joining Mission to the World.

Ken's responsibilities include overseeing numerous church plants in Berlin, leading a branch of a Reformed seminary, and directing Mission to the World's work in Germany, Austria, and Switzerland.

Tammie, originally from Columbus, Ohio, is also a Clearwater Christian College graduate. She has ministered through music, drama, and Bible teaching. Her current ministry focus is intercessory prayer.

The Matlacks have two adult daughters, Caitlin Morrison and Evangeline Henderson, and several grandchildren.
