DAVID AND TERRI WEGENER #18178

David and Terri became Christians and met while attending Indiana University. After marrying in 1983, David attended Trinity Evangelical Divinity School in Illinois, where he received an M.Div. and an M.A. in Church History and Theology. Later he received an M.A. in Reformation History from the University of Wisconsin, and they spent seven months in Geneva, Switzerland, where David was a Fulbright Scholar.

After David had served as a pastor for ten years during the 1990s, the Wegeners joined MTW to serve as missionaries in Africa. Since 2002 they have lived in Ndola, Zambia, where David is part of an international team of lecturers at the Theological College of Central Africa. Terri works with the wives of students as together they train pastors and Christian leaders to reach Zambia and Central Africa for Christ.
